Central Intelligence Agency

Dear John:

I am much obliged to you for sharing your noon hour with me, and the nice lunch. You are an excellent listener and I appreciate your hearing me out on what I am trying to develop here at AFCEA.

I am convinced AFCEA has a role to play in bridging the gap between DoD, government, and industry in the world of Technical Intelligence. Any feedback you might have along this line would be gratefully appreciated. I look forward to continuing our personal and professional association.

Warm regards,
